SHORT CUTS

THE next time Junior leaves his usual tell-tale ring around the bath tub or wash basin, you will find a slightly moistened paper towel to be an excellent short cut in causing the dirt to disappear rapidly. Paper towels absorb all moisture quickly and easily and their slightly uneven surface is a great dirt eradicator. A handy roll of paper towels installed in your bathroom will make household chores seem twice as easy. Then the next time your young pride and joy proceeds to leave his small mark of neglect on your bathroom porcelain, you may rest assured that paper towels have helped you over another tough household hurdle.

Try Triangles Today

By Frances Lee Barton

ARE you flurrying and worrying
Around the kitchen scurrying,
A'wondering and a'pondering
About what to serve tonight?
Cease your dancing and your prancing.
Here's a recipe entrancing.
Try it and both guests and family
Will approve with all their might.

Crusty Fruit Triangles

2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; ¾ teaspoon salt; ⅓ cup shortening; 1½ teaspoons grated orange rind; ½ cup seedless raisins; 2 tablespoons dark corn syrup; ½ cup milk.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening; add orange rind and raisins. Combine corn syrup and milk. Add all at once to flour mixture and stir carefully until all flour is dampened. Then stir vigorously until mixture forms a soft dough and follows spoon around bowl. Turn out immediately on lightly floured board and knead 30 seconds. Roll ⅛ inch thick and cut in triangles. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Brush tops lightly with corn syrup. Bake in hot even (450° F.) 12 to 15 minutes, or until browned. Makes about 15 triangles.

DON'T use all your cherries for your pies and preserves. Hold out a few cups so that you may give a special treat to the family by serving a cherry upside down cake. It's delicious!

Cherry Upside Down Cake

1¼ cups sifted cake flour; 1¼ teaspoons double-acting baking powder; ¼ teaspoon salt; ¾ cup sugar; 4 tablespoons butter or other shortening; 1 egg, well beaten; ⅓ cup milk; 1 teaspoon vanilla; 4 tablespoons butter; ½ cup sugar; 1¾ cups pitted and drained red cherries, fresh or canned.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and sugar, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly. Add dry ingredients, egg, milk, and vanilla and stir until all flour is dampened; then beat vigorously 1 minute.

Melt 4 tablespoons butter in 8 x 8 x 2 inch pan or 8 inch skillet, over low flame; add sugar and cook and stir until thoroughly mixed. On this arrange cherries. Turn batter out on contents of pan. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 50 minutes, or until done. Loosen cake from sides of pan with knife or spatula. Turn upside down on dish with cherries on top. Garnish with whipped cream, if desired.

Note: For best results, have all ingredients at room temperature before mixing.

HEY LOOK! HERE'S A LETTER FROM OUR FORMER MANAGER IN THE SERVICE OVERSEAS. IT'S ADDRESSED TO ALL OF US. COME OVER HERE A MINUTE, AND I'LL READ IT ALOUD.
Hello Gang—
Got to thinking about Christmas and how busy you store always are during the holidays. It was then though, I decided to send you all my best wishes to yours when you get that Christmas Greeting. So all of you customers,
MERRY CHRISTMAS!

LET'S SHOW THE WORLD OUR CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

CHRISTMAS is a time for thoughtful consideration of others. We are a nation of plenty. But, in contrast, there is . . . Europe, where Famine hovers like a great vulture over friend and foe alike.

We are confronted with the great practical problem of feeding and rehabilitating most of the world, when peace comes. We can only guess at the requirements at the war's end. But they will be immense.

With other United Nations, we are setting aside reserves in an international pool for relief of famine. Let's show the world our Christmas spirit—the Christian spirit—by our willingness to sacrifice individually in order that this relief pool may grow and grow until it is a great horn of plenty spilling our surpluses bountifully over the hungry lands. It will be one of the first steps in making our ideal—"life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—a world ideal.

Christmas Demands Candies

By Frances Lee Barton

CHRISTMAS would not be Christmas without turkey, holly and candy — hard candy especially. This year, with sugar more precious than ever, many will revert to grandmother's habit of making her own Christmas candies. Here is a recipe for a chocolate coconut caramel that may be made before the Christmas rush and without too heavy an inroad on the sugar supply. The corn syrup lends its assistance as a sweetening agent — and the caramel that results has a flavor all its own.

Chocolate Coconut Caramels

1 cup sugar; ¾ cup light corn syrup; 3 squares unsweetened chocolate; ¼ teaspoon salt; 1½ cups heavy cream; 1 can moist, sweetened coconut.

Combine sugar, corn syrup, chocolate, salt, and ½ cup cream. Place over low flame and stir constantly until sugar is dissolved and mixture boils. Continue boiling until a small amount of mixture forms a soft ball in cold water (238° F.), stirring constantly. Add ½ cup cream and again boil to 238° F., stirring constantly. Add remaining ½ cup cream and boil slowly until a small amount of mixture forms a firm ball in cold water (246° F.), stirring constantly. Remove from fire; add coconut. Pour into slightly buttered pan, 8 x 4 inches. Do not scrape pan. Let stand until cold. Mark with knife into ¾-inch squares and turn out on cold slab, turning top side up; cut in squares, using full length of long, sharp blade. Let stand in cool place 2 to 3 hours to dry. Wrap each caramel in waxed paper. Makes 40 caramels.

By BETTY BARCLAY

Don't worry too much about meat rationing. Perhaps you will be forced to purchase your favorite steak in smaller quantity or less frequently, but the proposed rationing should not hurt you nutritionally.

Steak is a delicious food, rich in proteins. But other protein foods are plentiful. Take the shelled almond, for instance. This is an American product that contains about the same amount of protein per pound as a Porterhouse steak cut from the loin. Almonds are almost three times as rich in fat, and in addition contain over 17% carbohydrates. They furnish vitamins A, B_1 and G. They are filled with iron, calcium and phosphorous. Can you think of a better nutrition aid at the present time?

Nibble almonds for your protein. Salt them, toast them, or blanch them if you wish. They are plentiful this year and may be obtained in 8-ounce packages of shelled, uniform kernels — all ready for the Bridge party, or after-dinner bite.

Blanched Almonds

Pour boiling water over the almonds and allow to stand (about two minutes) until skins slip off easily through fingers. Dry thoroughly in a VERY slow oven.

Salted Almonds

Place blanched almonds in shallow pan with one teaspoonful of butter or salad oil to each cup of almonds. Brown in a moderate oven, stirring frequently. Spread out on paper to cool and sprinkle with salt.

Toasted Almonds

Place the natural shelled almonds in shallow pan with one teaspoonful of butter or salad oil to each cup of almonds. Cook in a moderate oven, stirring frequently, until the center of an almond when broken in half is a delicate brown. Spread out on paper to cool and sprinkle with salt.

And don't forget that almonds make delicious cakes; are used for sandwich and ice box cake fillings; and are ideal for super-delicious ice creams and salads.

Here are two recipes showing how the nutritious little almond fits into the 1942 menu. Try one and you will be tempted to try the other.

Almond Sandwiches

½ cup almonds
¼ cup mayonnaise
⅔ cup shredded celery

Chop the almonds fine and mix them with the celery. Spread between thin, buttered slices of bread. Sandwiches filled with this mixture are an excellent accompaniment to salads or cold meats. When served with meats the celery and almonds may be moistened with a few spoonfuls of mayonnaise.

Almond Macaroons

½ pound sweet almonds
2 egg whites
½ pound powdered sugar

Blanch the almonds and pound them to a paste; add the sugar and stiffly beaten egg whites. Work the whole together with the back of a spoon, then roll the mixture in the hands to form balls about the size of a nutmeg. Lay them on a paper at least an inch apart, and bake in a slow oven (250°-300° F.) until light brown.
